

Silence

Ama Lou

Silence
Silence

Silence don't bring me down
It's got that kinda charm that resurrects
So bring me silence
Till you start hearin' sounds
Maybe it's just one of those things that you don't get

Again I blame it on my brain for this mess I'm in
For makin' me this way, so damn sensitive
Truth has them always coming direct
For my head
Ah, ah, ah, ah

Better watch out for your speedin', you got opps all on them sides
And don't watch if I ain't speakin', I already clocked you ain't one of mine
Can't believe I was convinced that you were actually alright
Addin' up your stories, rollin' my eyes

Suddenly I'm deepin'
When I sit with y'all I just get this awful feeling
How'd I not notice that there's smoke fillin' up the ceiling?
Oh, I don't wanna die in no fire
We know who started it so
Don't lie

'Cause silence don't bring me down
It's got that kinda charm that resurrects
So bring me silence
Till you start hearin' sounds
Maybe it's just one of those things that you don't get

Again I blame it on my brain for this mess I'm in
For makin' me this way, so damn sensitive
Truth has them always coming direct
For my head

See, it's all about the details but that's somethin' you pay no mind
Tryna kill off all my demons, I ain't wastin' no more time
See, I told you what would happen, don't bring that drama in my life
You ain't the one, stop stealin' my light

Suddenly I'm deepin'
When I sat with you I just got this heavy feeling
You're so judgmental, tryna stop a bitch from healin'
Fuck, I don't wanna die in no fire
You know who started it so, shit
Don't lie

'Cause silence don't bring me down
It's got that kinda charm that resurrects
So bring me silence
Till you start hearing sounds
Maybe it's just one of those things that you don't get

Again I blame it on my brain for this mess I'm in

For making me this way
So damn sensitive
The truth has them always coming direct
For my head
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Silence
