I'm trying to understand it but it's making me numb
This swirl of karma leaving such a bitter taste on my tongue
'Cause I know the pain and sorrow, it has only begun

Whoa

Whoa

Whoa

Now I'm surrounded by my enemies, but luck's on my side
So I shatter through the walls and change the course of the tide
Can't stop this surging fate like a volcano set to break
Take a breath until you're set to face that voice of fear

That God of death that's always looking down on you

"Do you believe yourself?"

I won't stop til I've won

A glimpse of that bright future that's just begun!

Shining like a diamond

The emotions in your heart reflect like crystal

As we vow an oath that will ignite

Your light and mine - And we will rise!

So many times I've gotten back on my feet to make it to this moment

It's time our prayer that's waiting in the dark

Is set free so light the spark and let it shine!

Hey

Hey

Much like a sweet ambrosia, the tears of mistake

Whoa

The road ahead is filled with predators waiting for a chance to take

Whoa

Whoa

In the right hands, even glass can shine like diamond and seem

Like it's 100 karat's glimmering (FAKER!)

The world is waiting for a captivating miracle

One that makes my heart skip a beat!

Shining like a diamond

Deep inside the purest hope reflects like crystal

Oh shine all my tears

And you will find a hidden light to cure the dark

There is no time left to throw away on a lackluster imitation

I'll carve this rough stone into a gem

Even if that means it'll burn away all I am!

Whoa

Whoa

Whoa

Whoa

No way to burn it just fight on through

To prove my way!

Don't break it now (No!) Break it! (Don't make me break!)

Waiting for the other side I'm up against (Miss you)

I will protect all that I love until the end

No way to burn just fight on through (To prove my way!)

Somehow I keep on coming (Go! Go!) Keep on coming back

Up to the sky we'll raise our hearts up high!

Shining like a diamond

Shining like a diamond
The emotions in your heart reflect like crystal
As we vow an oath that will ignite
Your light and mine - And we will rise!
So many times I've gotten back on my feet to make it to this moment
IT'S TIME our prayer that's waiting in the dark
Is set free so light the spark and let it shine!
And we will shine!

It's time - it's time
