

Again

AmaLee

How could I
Not realize
That all this time
You've been here
Every day
Right by my side
Through the best
Through the worst
Through every tear
I have found
My way again
Because you're here

Is this goodbye
Just until we meet again
So until then
I will try my best to smile

Oh please
I wish that we could stay like this
'Cause whenever you are near
I can feel a warmth within my heart
Promise you won't let go
Even just a little hope
'Cause I know the sun will rise again
On the two of us

On this path
I've begun
I now can see
What could be
The future
For you and me
Though I hope
Someday soon
I'll understand
And recall
Just those three words
That you had said

Can you stay here
Just until my heart can heal
Is this a dream
If it is it feels so real

Oh please
I feel like I could fade away
To the world within your eyes
If you'd only bring me along, my love
There's so much light in you
Though you don't believe it's true
So tomorrow I'll say it all again
Until you believe

Here on this path
You will make it through

Oh, oh-oh-oh
All at once
There is a dream and it's coming true
As destiny is pulling me to you

Oh please
I wish that we could stay like this
'Cause whenever you are near
I can feel a warmth within my heart
Promise you won't let go
'Cause I know the sun will rise again

Please
I feel like I could fade away
To the world within your eyes
If you'd only bring me along, my love
There's so much light in you
Though you don't believe it's true
So tomorrow I'll say it all again
Until you do believe
