I promise that I will never lose it
The love that we have
Will stay warm in my heart
Follow me

With my toes in the sand
I hold hands with the sea

Rurei rureia
Reaching to grasp to the blue sky
The larks birds sing above

Run here run to my side
This one young child's green eyes
Holds me with such bliss (holds me with such bliss)

Follow me

With my toes in the grass
I hold hands with our sky

Beating softly is the heart in my chest
I'll keep this love warm while it sleeps silently
A kiss wakes me

Secretly I yearn to wake up and see
You holding onto my hands, saying softly
"I love you"

With my toes in the clouds
I hold hands with our stars
Run here run to my side (to my side)
Reaching to grasp to the blue sky
The larks sing above
Rurei rureia
When I dream I see a world where we are all one

When I dream I see a world where we're all one
Only dreams
Come to my side it's warm here
Hold hands with our stars
Hold hands with our stars
