AmaLee

You sigh and bite your lip
As you grieve the sheer absurdity
That's making your tears fall as you say:
"Why's it gotta be this way?"

I only wish I could protect you
I don't want anything to hurt you
But this path you're fighting through
I know it will be full of tears
So listen here 'cause I swear

It's gonna be alright
There's no looking back whenever you make up your mind
I'm here, so don't you cry and I'll never leave your side

Howling out with you
Like a pack of wolves, together we will make it through
They might knock us down
But we won't give up
Not without a fight
Oh, you can try, if you'd like

I'm not afraid to say that I'm weak
I'm proud of every scar that's on me
I can laugh about the pain
While I wipe my tears away

But I know I can't keep on pretending
'Cause the remorse is never ending
As one, we'll fight 'cause together they can't bring us down
So here and now, hear me out

It's gonna be alright!
So just look ahead and let the future be your guide
Keeping your fists held tight, always ready for the fight

Gotta take a stand
Cause your tears, they show reality is in your hands
They can't stop us now
No, they can't bring us down

The sun is shining
When you look out the window
And the snow is melting
It's revealing the path, I know

It's gonna be alright
There's no looking back whenever you make up your mind
I'm here, so don't you cry
And I'll never leave your side

Howling out with you
Like a pack of wolves, together we will make it through
They can't bring us down!

It's gonna be alright!
If you look ahead and let the future be your guide

Keeping your fists held tight, always ready for the fight

Hidden in your heart
I can see the future start
For you, I'll will be strong
I'll take on the world
Whatever it takes
I swear I will keep you safe, yeah
