

Blowing

AmaLee

It goes this way again
I keep repeating moments in my head
And I just can't forget
The way time has stopped around us
How much longer? Can't wait
For the wind to sweep us off our feet
My life story is lonely
It's not like a fairy tale

I swear now tonight
From here on out

I'm flying to you on the wind
I miss you, hope you'll take my hand
I'm flying all the way across the world
I'd go anywhere for you
Say the word and I'll fly to you

I shout out loud, shut up
To the world that said you really suck
I can't tell you enough
That you're bright just like the sunshine
I swear my record is clean
So you can trust me like the air you breathe
So please don't make the same mistake
Burning down this entire landscape

Blow away all the lies
That cloud your mind

I'm flying to a new beginning
I trust you with all of my life
I'm flying from beyond the unknown
I become the blowing wind
In the sky clear like tears I cry

I'll wait forever
Though it's never meant to be
Always remember
Spells fade eventually
But I will treasure every single memory
For all eternity
It's you and me

I'll find you before morning comes
I'm racing the light of the sun, yeah

I'm flying to you on the wind
I miss you, hope you'll take my hand
I'm flying all the way across the world
I'd go anywhere for you
Say the word and I'll fly to you
Beyond one thousand nights
