I'll keep them close
Every passing moment
It feels like it might
Change the world
But till that day
They'll always feel like a part of me

This sick aggravation
Won't approve
I just wanna hide
But I can't move

Despite all my worries and troubles
Conviction it crumbles
But I can't decide
When to stand up and fight
With this one word
You gave me
With one word
You saved me
This haze of doubt
Is melting away

You're like the light
Bright, it shines from above
Into the dark empty room of my heart

The sky above's
An endless blue of sapphire
It's color inviting me there
So I let open the window
That I always kept shut

I'll keep them close
Every passing moment
It feels like it might
Change the world
But till that day
They'll always feel like a part of me

Another chill day rides in again
Where I'm searching for Answers I won't get
They must exist
Ooooohhhhhh
Ooooohhhhhh

If I turn back to
That soft gentle voice
Would it lead me to
The light of the sun?

I won't forget
Your unexpected smile
It's like the light
That shines from above
When I let open the window

That I always kept shut

I'll keep them close
Every passing moment
It feels like it might
Change the world
Until that day
When it is standing in front of me

The sky above's
An endless blue of sapphire
It's color inviting me there
So I let open the window
That I always kept shut

I'll keep them close
Every passing moment
It feels like it might
Change the world
But till that day
They'll always feel like a part of me
Yeeeaaahhh

So spread your wings
And reach into the light and you'll see
