

Dance! Dance! Dance!

AmaLee

This is is my dying cry
This is me half-dying
This is is my dying cry
This is me at last

I think I know
Where I'm going
And even though
My heart's frozen

Underneath tons, tons, tons of my pathetic dreams
I take another step and I go on

You try to live in this world on your own
You can't just act like you sit on the throne
One day you're done, done, done, done with your ego trip
Before you know it, your dreams started to slip

Now, did you hear that things have gone your way?
Who will revel with you on your lucky day?
Well, when the fun, fun, fun, fun starts to fade away
A manic chorus in your heart starts to play

You can just say, "Dance! Dance! Dance!"
Take my hand with yours and we'll show them all

This is is my dying cry
This is me half-dying
This is is my dying cry
This is me at last
