Now or never
Just fight it out
Just fight it out
Just fight it out
Just fight it out

The night reflects in my eyes
Up to the stars, I'm reaching out
My future's ticking by as time is bleeding
But I wanna just be honest with myself

Come clean - go with the wind (ah)
Changing, causing a scene
Keep it real, a proof of life (ah)
A living masterpiece (ow!)

Everybody betrays me
I see you hand in my memory
Everything betrays me
Although it may fade, it won't disappear

A hundred more times - a million more times
I'll take the pain, but I won't give up my faith
I always will be me, it's proof I am living
I gotta make a change (make a change, yeah)

In this world of regret, just follow my footsteps
Setting free all of the anger you're hiding
A hundred more times - a million more times
I'll find and create myself

Now or never
Just fight it out
Just fight it out
Just fight it out
Just fight it out

Break free from the pressure
This never ending chain
But I'm tangled - am I struggling in vain?
Nothing's making any sense
I know I only gotta just be honest with myself

Cannot lose (aye!)
Throw me in the mix, yeah I might blow up, but I'll conquer
Never lose (aye!)
Negative emotions still raging on like a fire

Even if you lose your way
I know in the end it'll be okay
Because I believe in you, oh

A hundred more times - a million more times
I'll take the pain, but I won't give up my faith
Beyond any limit, I've chosen my target
I gotta make a change (make a change, yeah)

Remember this moment
We've waited for it
There's nothing holding you back so carve a path
A hundred more times - a million more times
I'll find and create myself
Oh yeah-!

Life is short
Feel it fading it every day
Images in my head - Don't know what they say
Can't bend - Can't break
Now I gotta find the truth before it blows up now
Undead like a zombie, searching for glory
Find my reason for fighting turn it back
Not gonna lose gotta spread my wings and fly

Let's fight to the limit - and scream louder
Let's break out - Let's break out - oh yeah! (NOW!)
And til the end we'll stay savage

A hundred more times - a million more times
I'll take the pain, but I won't give up my faith
I always will be me, it's proof I am living
I gotta make a change (make a change, yeah)

In this world of regret, just follow my footsteps
Setting free all of the anger you're hiding
A hundred more times - a million more times
I'll find and create myself

Now or never
Just fight it out
Just fight it out
Just fight it out
