

Flower Of Hell

AmaLee

Come now and let us forget
The future just ahead
Soon now before our whole world bathes in blood again
Like how the wind curls around
The calm just before the storm
I take it that too is a sign

Break away, escape
Break away, escape
From this path that we've made and this wicked fate

I still believe that you can't be
A flower of hell
You're not meant for this place
Don't you blossom here
Don't you blossom here
Every step is a trap
So easily ensnared
The shards of time are flying by now
Without a single sound

Ayi ayi ooh
Ayi ayi

Who's that?
Who's grasping my hand and holding to it tight?
Who's that caressing my hair?
A touch so soft and light
The sprouts that were crying out
Their sorrow the saddest song
I take it that too is a sign

Fly away, don't wait
Fly away, don't wait
Don't fall under the weight of the wheels of fate

I still believe that you can't be
A flower of hell
You're not meant for this place
Don't you dare grow here
Don't you dare grow here
Don't you leave any seeds
Or sow anymore tears
The everchanging karma sprouting
Repeating once again

Break away, escape
Break away, escape
From this path that we've made and this wicked fate

I still believe that you can't be a flower of hell
You're not meant for this place
Don't you blossom here
Don't you blossom here
Every step is a trap
So easily ensnared

Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
