Here (Ancient Magus' Bride)

AmaLee

The one and only has come
And there can only be one
And at last, I am here

Why can't I even breathe
Standing in the wreckage
The rain, a lullaby
And so I close my... eyes

Within this world
If you wish to live another day
You must disguise
As a flower that will captivate

You, I want to believe
But, I cannot believe
I'm powerless - I'm meaningless, like every scar
But as I cry, tears fill inside
Right through my heart

Through it all, I can hear
Someone whispering, "come near"
All that I miss - it's infinite, and so I see
Tomorrow's come, with a new sun
Wa^iting for me

The one and only has come
And there can only be one
And at last, I am here

There is a part of me
That wants to forgive you
But I will not forget
I can't understand... yet

Within this world
If I were to live another day
I must learn this song
And quickly learn to play along

If I want to believe
I just need to believe

Freedom's a lie - Even so, I
Must cross that line
I'll scream it loud, barren, I shout
"I'll make it mine"
And so I turn away
From the truth that's in my way

Defy the gods - Despite the odds
I'll find that light
Something so pure, I'll search the world
Into the night

The one and only has come

And at last, I am here

For you, there is always a place
Inside this heart of mine
In this beautiful, vicious world of ours
Where the light hides
Hidden somewhere from our eyes

I'm powerless – I'm meaningless, like every scar
Someone whispering, "come near"

All that I miss – it's infinite, and so I see

The one and only has come
