High Sky

AmaLee

Can you hear my heartbeat
Racing underneath my breath?
I wish no one harm with this lie on my lips

Haunted by the words
I silence them before I speak
I can't help but fear, of what may lie ahead

High Sky, and I take flight
High Soul, now I fly for you
High End, so let us soar for all eternity

La la la la la
La la la la la

I can feel the wind
Telling me to spread my wings
I'll become the sky, and let it carry me

High Sea, the deepest blue
High Soul, I'm thinking of you
High End, now I can't stop my tears from falling
High Sky, and I take flight
High Soul, now I fly for you
High End, so let us soar for all eternity
