AmaLee

Fate repeats all over again
The voices of my heart say
Time is not enough, it's over

Belief that makes me who I am
Light doesn't fade away
Made my mind up now, it's better

Yeah I know it's not an easy road
Lured by your hands
Even if it rains don't be swayed
Being same as always
Want to feel my destiny
Open my eyes to be braver

Get up now
Get up now
Stronger
I believe in myself
Stand up now
Stand up now
Shouting
I'll never run away

I might lose control
It's a perfect world
Destroy all of it, in the end it's for our good
Let me shout like flames

Fake... the same taste over again
The voices of my heart say
Indiscretion is it bitter?

Hey You follow me
I really need you so please, take my hand
You know the way I stand

Put your faith in me
My hand is ready let's break out

Climb up now
Climb up now
Higher
I accept myself
Wake up now
Wake up now
Shouting
I'll won't throw it away

Maybe, lose control...
And might fade away
But I'll keep going over and beyond the gate
Let me shout like flames

It's when I knew I won't go back to the day of repeating pain I realized
It's already started to revolve around, trying to play tricks on me
Smiling destiny

Open my eyes to be braver

Get up now
Get up now
Stronger
I believe in myself
Stand up now
Stand up now
Shouting
I'll never run away

I might lose control
It's a perfect world
Shine the line on it
In the end it's for our good
Let me shout Like Flames

Let me shout Like Flames

Let me shout Like Flames
