

Love Dramatic

AmaLee

Oh, love me, mister!
Oh, mister!
Can you make me believe this is not a dream?
Hey, mister!
Come on, mister!
Is it sad that my heart's beating frantically?
Just my feelings alone make me lose my breath
Then you give me that look, and I'm over the edge
You and I, my, we play quite a dangerous game
Love is war!
Love is war!
Love is war!

It's so dramatic
I feel the tension rising as we dance
I get a vision
A premonition of thrilling romance
All at once, I hear it calling me
And I feel a touch, a longing for destiny
I just wish that I could find the chance
To set free these feelings of love
And break the walls that surround your heart!

Oh, love me, mister!
Oh, mister!
Can you make me believe this is not a dream?
Hey, mister!
Come on, mister!
Is it sad that my heart's beating frantically?
Just my feelings alone make me lose my breath
Then you give me that look, and I'm over the edge
You and I, my, we play quite a dangerous game
Love is war!
Love is war!
Love is war!

King of pretending
Acting so cool, you never give an inch
This game we're playing
Are you aware it's one that no one wins?
I don't need a fairy-tale ending
Only happy-ever-afters happen in movies
I won't waste my time rejecting lies
I wanna get lost in your love
So come and tease my heart a little more!

Oh, love me, mister!
Oh, mister!
One thing I can't forget is your silhouette
Hey, mister!
Come on, mister!
But the chance of a kiss is one I won't get
If I break down your walls, I wonder if I'll find
Something hidden behind those pure, innocent eyes
You and I, my, we play quite a dangerous game
Love is war!
Love is war!

Love is war!

Can you tell me the answer, please?
Can't you see I'm down on my knees?
I'm begging, please tell me the secret of Obtaining your love!

Oh, love me!

Oh, love me, mister!
Oh, mister!
Can you make me believe this is not a dream?
Hey, mister!
Come on, mister!
With the sound of your voice put a spell on me
Tried to hold back my love, but I no longer can
So I'll give you my heart, everything that I am
You and I, my, we play quite a dangerous game
Love is war!
Love is war!
Love is war!

Love is war!
Love is war!
Love is war!

Love is war!
Love is war!
Love is war!

Love me, mister!
Love me, mister!
