

Masayume Chasing

AmaLee

Oh, yeah

While chasing my dreams
I got lost it seems
Within the forest deep in my heart
A mirror like a spring
Reflecting clearly
A smile like a broken star (broken star)

Every tear that fills my eyes
To gold and silver, they'll never compare
These ordinary tears of mine
I bet no one will hear my cry

So I'll keep on chasing, chasing
My dream and I'll soar
Like no one's ever done before
And I'll keep chasing, chasing
My dream 'til I'm sure
It's burning through my soul
A light shining brighter than gold

And I will rise a hero
A light shining brighter than gold
My life, yeah

I close my eyes to dream
And hear a voice faintly
Calling out to me again
I'm standing alone
Much too far from home
I gaze into that lonely sky

I gotta leave and live my life (goodbye)
No more bitter poison and strife
A world of flowers growing high
Yeah, that's the future that I'll find!

Starting now I'm changing, changing
I swear that I'll soar
Like no one's ever done before
The future's changing, changing
My wish and yours
But soon we will behold
A light shining brighter than gold

And I will rise a hero
A light shining brighter than gold

Hey, see, when life is getting tough
Look up 'cause you gotta remember
When you wake up, fix your make up
All these days so rough
That you want to fade out
Stuck within a nightmare
No way baby
Leave it all behind when you open your eyes

The sunrise reflected in your eyes
A burning and brilliant dawn
But it's so bright, the future I see
I only hope it comes true

So I'll keep on chasing, chasing
My dream and I'll soar
Like no one's never done before
And I'll keep chasing, chasing
My dream 'til I'm sure
It's burning through my soul
A light brighter than gold

And I will rise a hero
A light shining brighter than gold
