To sink or swim, we just gotta survive in this
Dog-eat-dog world where we live, but we ask
What went wrong? (What went wrong?)

Survival of the fittest only means surviving fate
Face a world that our wisdom will only tell me
What went wrong? (What went wrong?)

I've paid my dues
I've sold my soul
So tell me what is left for me
When I've given up everything?

All this this changing scenery
It means nothing to me
Even though, it's beautiful, I don't feel a thing

There's only silence in my mind
Like there's nothing inside - Of my soul
I don't know - Why I once dreamed of this view

If you are strong, you'll find responsibility
Weighs down on you like you're carrying a heavy chain
What went wrong? (What went wrong?)

Within this world the weak are trampled on to keep them desperate
We know it's wrong, but we don't do a thing to change the flaw
What went wrong? (What went wrong?)

We've paid our dues
We've sold our souls
So tell me what is left for us
When we've given up everything?

All this this changing scenery
It means nothing to me
Even though, it's beautiful, I don't feel a thing

There's only silence in my mind
Like there's nothing inside - Of my soul
I don't know - Why I once dreamed of this view

This world has lost it's clarity
There's no justice - no morality
Even with all the good in this world
All it takes is a single blow

The balance of good and evil
Kill or be killed, we're all fighting for freedom
So is this the meaning of life?
Can you hear me roar?

All this this changing scenery
It means nothing to me -
Even though, it's beautiful, I don't feel a thing

There's only silence in my mind

Like there's nothing inside – Of my soul
I don't know – Why I once dreamed of this view

All this this changing scenery
It means nothing to me
Even though, it's beautiful, I don't feel a single thing

Like there's nothing inside – Of my soul
I don't know – Why I once dreamed of this view
