

Pray

AmaLee

La la la la ah

Let's go out! Open my mind
Let's go! Sweet dream, other side
Now that I've opened my eyes
This world can't hold me down

This beat, like a rusted key
It fades to silence in my mind
Guess there's no turning back time
No going back now

Broken days are over - Forever
(Hey baby why?)
They always have followed me out though
(I want to cry)
My fear has been relentlessly
Beating this fight inside me
From my fate, I won't run away
No way - cause I'm not alone!

Baby, if you're by my side
It doesn't matter what happens next
My dreams could turn to grey -
They could fade away
Let me be the one to share the tears in your eyes
Baby, I pray- and I believe
We'll tear apart the darkness
In your icy dreams completely

La la la la ah

My broken wings were resting
Inside the spring when suddenly
You jumped in, sending a wave - Much to my disbelief

This dull world's getting to me
With its mundane anxiety
These things will always exist for you to brush off

Look up at the night sky - And you'll find (Baby ... for you)

A reason to keep your head held high
(I'm here for you)
So pack away those nagging thoughts
And shove them in your suitcase
Now catch your breath - and take a step
To clear this hate in your heart

Listen to the storm
In all the falling raindrops, you'll hear a song
Whenever you are sad
Know I've got your back
I'll only be a call away to shield the darkness
Baby ...So please always believe
Because inside your eyes I see

A miracle is shining

Ahh Ahh Ahh Ahh

Hey baby why? I want to cry ...
Hey baby why?

"Hey baby why? I wanna cry ..."
I'm here for you ... So, believe in yourself

Baby, if you're by my side
It doesn't matter what happens next
My dreams could turn to grey - They could fade away
Yeah, all these memories
I wanna share forever with you
I pray -so answer me
And let me in that heart of yours

Let me be the one to share the tears in your eyes
Baby, I pray- and I believe
We'll tear apart the darkness
In your icy dreams completely
