

REDO

AmaLee

My own past
It led me into a trap, but I can't
Can't believe that it's true, I'm begging you
Please, tell me it's a lie, 'cause I
Feel I've lost all control to break free
Where do I start? My vision's growing dark
I blindly choose a path

Memories, they're all that's left
Of precious days I will never forget

I play them again and again
Repeating each breath
But this time, I'll protect you, I swear
With my life

Wind back the tape and remember
The love that you once held close
Hold it tight and don't let go

All our feelings light the night sky
I'll make a wish and hope that it comes true this time
So the next version of me
They have a meaning
I can see the promise we made
Becomes a guiding light I know will never fade
So I will take this oath for your sake
Until the end

If I could change my tears into strength and power
Surely I'll find the future I see in my mind
Bring it to life

I'm losing
All sense of reality, I'm raising
My nails to claw against the night but I am struggling to break free from
Repeating every mistake I've made in my life
'Cause it would seem I'm living on repeat
I'm fighting through my tears

When I'm lost I can see a light
It's your dream always shining so bright
I'll come back!
I'll come back!
To your future!
(Go away)
Though we may end up fighting our way against fate
Breaking out! (yeah)
Breaking out! (yeah)
Breaking down! (yeah)
(Go away)
Oh, I haven't given up just yet

Our resolve is so much stronger
Now that we are together we can both emerge
Into this world we have made

I pray it won't fray
With new eyes we'll take in the sight
We'll see our dream and our ideals come to life
Right from the start, this world we unlocked
We made for us

Maybe if we find a way to keep our courage
Lighting the spark we've hidden inside of our hearts
We can restart
Redo

Even if fate tries to take our memories
I will never forget
And I promise
I will never let this sick world bring you harm again

Quickly now, the past will align
Before it fades, you've gotta save it from demise
And now's the time
Let it begin

All our feelings light the night sky
I'll make a wish and hope that it comes true this time
So the next version of me
They have a meaning
I can see the promise we made
Becomes a guiding light I know will never fade
So I will take this oath for your sake
Until the end

If I could change my tears into strength and power
Surely I'll find the future I see in my mind
Bring it to life
