

Resister

AmaLee

There's a place your voice can't reach even if you scream and shout
It's full of distorted rules that no one cared to tell you a single thing about
I have dreamed of this journey ever since we both were young
I prayed so hard and hoped to one day see it come true and finally it has begun

No moment more will I mourn wasting away time
'Cause if my limits were a wall I'd give it all to watch it fall

My blinding pride is burning with my emotions, my soul unwithering
My dream will always ground me, resilient with the memory, I'll never cave under the pain
I was chosen, this path before me, it's leading me to bright unclouded skies
With eyes illuminating, the vows that I'm embracing, I finally connect to you

We'll let our voices resonate
And as one, we will resist our fate

I don't wanna live my life holding onto every breath
I try but can't look away from a future that won't change so I'm left glaring straight at death
Pick up the shards of your heart broken and shattered
Into the ocean of your soul, dive in below and take control
Go to the outside of daydreams, break your limits

My blinding pride is shining to hide the weakness of all my darkest days
And even if my courage is swallowed by the currents, I'll find a way, won't be afraid
I'm embracing the hope that I found to find a way to keep my spoken vow
Although we have a while, I hope to see your smile
Within the future yet to break

We'll let our voices resonate
And as one, we will resist our fate

Laughter so contagious, it leaves your whole body shaking
With you by my side, I know that I can sing for all time

My blinding pride is burning with my emotions, my soul unwithering

My dream will always ground me, resilient with the memory, I'll never cave under the pain
I was chosen, this path before me, it's leading me to bright un clouded skies
With eyes illuminating, the vows that I'm embracing, I finally connect to you

We'll let our voices resonate
Fighting on through all adversity
Challenging our twisted destiny
Proud of myself
