

Rivers In The Desert

AmaLee

It's now or never
And I've got to
Make my decision
This time it could be my moment
Is this a mirage or
A chance to fulfill my mission?

A river in a dry land
The last ace in a lost hand
A heartbeat for a tin man
Oasis in a singed land

I'm keeping the balance
But I'm standing
On razor's edge now
Move quick or my life is over
One strike, just a feint, then...
I'm out of his field of vision
Don't ask why I'm ready
But I'm ready
To strike him down now
A chance at a new start
There's no time for indecision

A river in a dry land
The last ace in a lost hand
When the hope of new beginnings burned our feet
Now we need it:
A heartbeat for a tin man
Oasis in a singed land
Remind us what we're here for:
Creating new life
Creating rivers in the desert!

My heart is a furnace
Hot as hell in
My world of conflict
One goal is what keeps me going
Take back what I lost to...
The bosses of greed and fear, yeah
Don't ask why I'm ready
But I'm ready to take
Them down now
The time for a new start
Is constantly drawing nearer

A river in a dry land
The last ace in a lost hand
When the hope of new beginnings burned our feet
Now we need it:
A heartbeat for a tin man
Oasis in a singed land
Remind us what we're here for:
Creating new life
Creating rivers in the desert!

When a cool drop of water's all I need

Gotta clear my head of anger and greed
A place to refresh
This heart of mine
Can I find
Some time in

Rivers in a dry land
The last ace in a lost hand
When the hope of new beginnings burned our feet
Now we need it:
A heartbeat for a tin man
Oasis in a singed land
Remind us what we're here for:
Creating new life
Creating rivers in the desert!

Oh...
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Oh...
