

Rolling Star (Bleach)

AmaLee

I've held my tongue but I've gotta say this
I'm wearing thin and running low on self restraint
A bus stop from home, but still it's getting too late
You turned your back on me, so I say bye bye bye

You've gotta a fighting pose
So let it show

I wish the world that I have seen inside my dreams
Where everything is fine with peace of mind
Could be but no, oh
We're stuck in this reality of worrying
About such stupid little things
In our endless rolling days

Even though you keep on falling head first
You always laugh it off every single time
I step on the bus and see the back is empty
I take a seat and notice as you flash a smile

I'll follow where you go
Just so you know

The sweetest love that I have seen inside my dreams
Where distant lovers find each other
Where the world cannot reach but
We're stuck in this reality still struggling
These days we always keep
I wanna leave
These endlessly lonely days
Ooh yeah, ooh
Even if you stumble
On you go (yeah)
A worn and muddy rolling star!

It brings me so much pain
To see your smiling face now
But until the end I will do
Everything I can
There's no meaning in a lie
And there's none
None at all in mine
All my loving
That's not it
I know this isn't right

I wish the world that I have seen inside my dreams
Where everything is fine with peace of mind
Could be but no, oh
We're stuck in this reality of worrying
About such stupid little things
In these endless rolling days
Ooh yeah, ooh
Now that you've grasped the concept
Ooh yeah, ooh
Even if you stumble
On you go (yeah yeah)

A worn and muddy rolling star!
