Time has come to listen to the crying of their puppet souls
You seem content with the future set ahead
The limits reaching peak, flashing red
Words are strong, heart is dropped, scatters 'round and falls
Invite a fabricated everything
An intermingling of our scars
The sorrow we all know, we forget it all

A pseudonym is thawed; a facade to be lost
And with the hope that is left we protect it with our last breaths
The truth it left
Leave it all to rot

Yeah, get started break it all
Let all the madness call
It's beyond your realization
Yeah, go re-create the world
Take me to the end
Feel my raw emotion

Bring it on now, rock rock rock
Shake it up, don't stop stop stop
'Cause I know how to shout-out my soul

Bring it on now, rock rock rock
Shake it up, don't stop stop stop
'Cause you know how to shout-out your soul

I got a feeling, you must let me go
I wanna keep my faith forever
Words alive, supporting us, connecting with our souls
I'm gonna fight them all won't let you go
I wanna seek to find the answer
Words alive, supporting us, connecting with our souls

You know when we look up to the sky, all aflame
The halos within the clouds light me up then I awake
In the heat, the fire sweet, you call my name

Yeah, get started break it all
Let all the madness call
It's beyond your realization
Yeah, go re-create the world
Take me to the end
Feel my raw emotion

Bring it on now, rock rock rock
Shake it up, don't stop stop stop
'Cause I know how to shout-out my soul

Bring it on now, rock rock rock
Shake it up, don't stop stop stop
'Cause you know how to shout-out your soul

A pseudonym is thawed; a facade to be lost
And with the hope that is left we protect it with our last breaths
The truth it left

Leave it all to rot

Yeah, get started break it all
Let all the madness call
It's beyond your realization
Yeah, go re-create the world
Take me to the end
Feel my raw emotion

Bring it on now, rock rock rock
Shake it up, don't stop stop stop
'Cause I know how to shout-out my soul

Bring it on now, rock rock rock
