

Shall We Dance

AmaLee

Danger, danger, never speak a word, it's in your eyes
Danger, danger, only with a word, you rule the skies

Try to deceive me, go on cast your spell
This game, I've played it before
Try to enchant me, ring that morning bell
Shall we dance?

Danger, danger, fall for my disguise, it's my design.
Danger, danger, only with a word, you're mine.

Don't talk, don't make matters worse
I once fell under your spell, but only once
Don't speak, don't haunt me in my dreams
I see prey, pure child's play or so it seems

What is your answer, I'm dying to know
Is it a trick of the mind?
What is your judgement, a friend or a foe?
Shall we dance?

Danger, danger, you lost this game
When I took aim
Danger, danger, come on and renounce your reign

Don't talk, don't make matters worse
I once fell under your spell, but only once
Don't speak, don't haunt me in my dreams
I see prey, pure child's play or so it seems

Danger, danger, never speak a word, it's in your eyes and mine

Don't talk, don't make matters worse
I once fell under your spell, but only once
Don't scream, you knew what was in store
And you will keep, the wish you reap, forevermore

Danger, danger, you lost this game
When I took aim
Danger, danger, oooooohhhh
