Shatter

AmaLee

I'm a fool, but I'll break
Taking you with, if that what it's takes
In your eyes, I can see
Easily I can be captive, in your dreams

You're a charm, I'm naive
You're a charm, but what lies there unseen
Cause I know, straight away
All the games minds like yours play, hey

Eyes of an angel, starved for a secret
But can you keep it?
Open your mind, let me peek inside

You can't shatter the spirit in my bones
Many have tried to break down these walls
What make you think you can stand a chance

Go on fire away, into my heart
Into this dark unbreakable armor
No longer, will I let you win

You can't shatter the spirit in my bones
Many have tried to break down these walls
What make you think you can stand a chance

Stand a chance at all

It's a trap, made for me
Still I'm strung on every word you breath
Take a bow, I'll applaud
So you can shed your beautiful facade

Who do you, take me for
I know your kind, but I expected more
Was this fate, all along
Or a game, all the same

You can't shatter the spirit in my bones
Many have tried to break down these walls
What make you think you deserve a chance

Go on fire away, into my heart
Into this dark unbreakable armor
No longer, can I keep you around

Oooh, meant to be brave, here I go
Enter the flame and I know
You'll run away yet I know
I can't be saved, this is it

Now I'm one of you, this can't be fixed
It's a shame that it came down to this
I can't help it, now I need my fix
Don't you know that you're it?

You can't shatter the spirit in my bones

Many have tried to break down these walls
What make you think you can stand a chance

Nobody stands a chance
