We made promises that we never should have exchanged
And now we
Can only watch as it takes our futures farther away

Even if I obtain all the things I desperately crave
I don't think
That I could honestly ever smile quite the same

All the tears I've shed they've lead me to believe
They don't mean that you're weak
They are born from all the pain
We have seen

Every moment we are living
It was meant to be it's destiny
I've learned
That there is something more to live for
I was once alone lost in my thoughts
They got me down but I see now
That's the past
I'll go face the future

I know I'll keep my emotional landmine
And that will never change

A future we can't seem
To break free how 'bout we
Change the song of fate to a melody that we create
I wish that I could become the kind of person that could shine
No matter what
Though people would laugh it would only brighten my light

Don't tell me a lie it's time that we had left our excuses far behind
I can tell how true you are
With my heart

Love is surely an illusion
It's not meant to be it's fantasy
They say
It hurts you either way
But I've made up my mind
To understand the things I don't know anything about
This is it
Yeah knowledge is my wish

The sky was so blue it made me wanna cry
It just made me sad
I reached out my hands
I wonder if in another ten years from now
Will we still be like this
Will this still exist?

Every moment we are living
It was meant to be it's destiny
I've learned
That there is something more to live for
Even if I reach my limit

Even if it's tough I won't give up
I won't give in
I swear
I still feel the warmth from the last time I held your hand so tight
I hope it never leaves and when I need
It's always here with me
