The stars above they lead me right you
A strange love, calling with a dangerous tune
I gotta deny it, there's a hunger in me, a desire I fight it
But the dream, you invite it, in the light it leaves your heart rising

Baby be cool, approach me carefully, avert your eyes
Don't let me see you as an enemy or you'll be mine
Talking so nice and sweet
Making you believe it's all a dream
When in reality

I'm calling you like a siren
No need to be frightened
The water's so nice just jump in
Just imagine all we'd be
I could give you everything
Just let me be your siren
I could be your siren
Far from the shore
If you just let me we'll descend
Let me bring all the pain to end
Let me be your siren

I loved you from the moment we first met
But we're born to different waters so I said
I gotta deny it, there's a hunger in me, a desire I fight it
But the dream, I invite it, and at night it leaves my heart crying

Baby be cool, approach me carefully, avert your eyes
Don't let me see you as an enemy or you'll be mine
Talking so nice and sweet
Making you believe it's all a dream
When in reality

I'm calling you like a siren
No need to be frightened
The water's so nice just jump in
Just imagine all we'd be
I could give you everything
Just let me be your siren
I could be your siren
Far from the shore
If you just let me we'll descend
Let me bring all the pain to end
Let me be your siren

This is where you wanna be
No better place to be except for in my arms
Now you're safe from harm
Don't you listen to the wannabes
Calling your name cause wanna steal my loving song
What I saved you from

Siren
No need to be frightened
The water's so nice just jump in
Just imagine all we'd be

I could give you everything
Just let me be your siren
I could be your siren
