

Snow Fairy (Fairy Tail)

AmaLee

Fairy, where're you going?
We'll gather the light along the way
And make it shine upon a brand new day

Oh yeah
Can you hear the voice that's calling you yeah?
Oh yeah
It's raw and hoarse from screaming after you

Oh yeah
But it won't give up until you can answer it
Oh yeah
Oh yeah

Though all this time has past I still remember
The sun and moon and how they shine together
It feels so strange when you are not here with me
I need your smile just to keep me going

In my heart; it's snowing
I'm trying my best to smile
Slowly, it's warming
As fate is linking your heart with mine

Fairy, where're you going
We'll gather the light along the way
And make it shine upon a brand new day

Oh yeah
Breaking like the waves on the shore of the ocean
All my feelings have been blown away
The orange sunset fades to white and grey

Oh yeah
Cherishing that rainbow we saw together
All the colours in my memory
Are turning into snow with every day

It's strange, but when you smile I feel much stronger
But when you laugh, it lifts me so much higher

In my heart, it's snowing
I'm trembling, but now you're here
And tightly, you hold me
It's warming me right down to my core

So now fairy, I'm so lonely
But surely, you're walking your way
Oh-oh
Just hang in there

Why, why, why, why, why, why, why
Oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah

I've forgotten how it goes
Teach me how to laugh
Because your smile

Is like a magic spell

You could change the world, I know
'Cause you've surely changed mine
And that's why
You are my fairy

In my heart; it's snowing
I'm trying my best to smile
Slowly, it's warming
As fate is linking your life with mine

Fairy where're you going
We'll gather the light along the way
Shine on a brand new day

In my heart; it's snowing
I'm trying my best to smile
Because it was you
Because, my fairy, it was you

It's snowing
Snow fairy
Here my hands are holding gently
Carrying all the light you gave me

Snow fairy
Don't say goodbye
