

Synchronicity

AmaLee

I can see you in my mind, clearly
I can feel you and I am waiting by your side
I see you in my mind, clearly
I can feel you and now I won't forget I'm with you

All the warmth left in me
I feel it slip away
When tomorrow comes at last
Will there be nothing left?

If the beats of our hearts were in synchronicity
Could I fall as far you?
Could I feel the pain you do?

I'm always - I'm always waiting here, at your side
And I'll stay, come what may
Even if the future may take you far away

As we drift in a world of night
We huddle close together, wings tucked in tight
Like little birds that can't find the strength to fly
We dream about a wide open sky

You who always go hide behind
You who always will hide behind
A smile with your feelings locked up inside
Your eyes are like a blade of unmelting ice
I only wish myI only wish by holding you tight we could stay this way, forever

Kire kagima saibastia
Inaria miamenta
Asora ita saibastia
Imilia iyasii iya

Are you going alone?
I feel you slip away
You can tell me if you're mad
OrWe're just just a freedom looking back

When the shade of your heart is so cold it might just crack
Though we go by different names we are very much the same
There's a place - Just one place, we will one day return
We can't help but to trust in this fleeting feeling that's captured both of us

As we drift in a world of night
We may be split apart, but that's quite alright
I'll find my way to you, 'cause our hearts, they know
A bond that's stronger than any stone

When you're sad, it hurts even me
And even when you're laughing, seeming carefree
I wanna be the warmth to cure your cold touch
I'll make it be with each falling tear
I am always here, forever

I can see you in my mind, clearly

I can feel you and now I won't forget I'm with you
