

The Bravery

AmaLee

I'll put my faith in truth and honesty
Believing only what I see with my own eyes
Even though the world is feeding me lies
The day I stood to face that storm
You guided me so I could see

When you said: "I look at you and see a hero"
And your voice was strong and true
Believing in those words even though the people laugh and mock you
Their heartless words, a bitter sting: "He won't amount to anything"
But they'd bite their tongues now

You are strong - Unbreakable but never knowing that
All along your destiny was calling you where you belong - Here with me
Catching dreams that no one else can even see

Hold your hands to the sky
Your own flag held high
The bravery burns within you
And all your tears
They're proof you'll survive - They're proof that you're alive
Whoa
If you can't find your way
Just call out my name
I'll be at your side
So take my hand - Let's go!
The world is waiting for you and me

In life you slip and learn from your mistakes
Sometimes you won't have what it takes and that's okay
But you can't forget you're only human
We have our lives but pray for more
Ohh
'Cause no one wants reality
But hold your head high

On that day you picked me were my savor
And today it's thanks to you that I don't waver
Don't feel lost when you have just as many dreams as there are shining stars

It's too soon to give in
Just look deep within
The bravery burns within you
You'll be all right
Tomorrow's in sight
And soon you'll greet the dawn
Yeah
If your heart still believes
And if you still dream then put faith in me
I'm always by your side
No matter what the future throws our way

We traveled near and far and gave up all we had
But still we made it here and fought on through the good at bad
And even when I lost the will to get up and stand
You offered me your strength as you held out your hand

Hey, I wanna know
If you can see all the good inside of your soul
'Cause you are why I'm gonna try to stand up again all on my own
I will never forget who you are
Because instead of yourself you put others above
You're getting up again 'cause even though you are hurt
You'd sacrifice it all in order to save the ones you love
Ahh

Hey - Hey I wanna know
How you go so far
It's just who you are
Please realize I am right here and there's no need to fear
Let me become your strength
Yeah

If you can't find your way
Just call out my name
I'll be at your side
So take my hand - Let's go!

The world is waiting for both you and me
And somewhere out there is our destiny
Just look inside to find the bravery
