

The Day

AmaLee

It's 5 AM and my breathin' has stopped again
The world goes quiet like a storm right before the end
You bite at your nails as you run to the exit sign
There's no time to wait because the day has come

Every single night, never-ending
It's an endless storm in the rains unrelenting
But that's the way this world is run
Though it is a hopeless one
Even if you keep on falling
Keep on movin' forward even if you're barely crawling
Although you're half asleep, stumbling
You've gotta keep up the fight

Once again
You're lost in that world in your head
Don't you see
What you've been missin'?
You could be livin'
Out your wildest dreams

This tangled maze keeps on twisting, twisting
But through the chaos, we will keep persisting
The sound of a bell calls for a new adventure
And the start of a brand new beginnin'
I don't know which way I should be goin'
It's really scary to run not knowin'
But with every step we grow stronger, I know that soon
We will find a way because the day has come

Those that don't seem to understand you
Are they any better than the ones that pretend to?
But that's the way this world is run
Though it is a hopeless one
This world isn't anything like hell
But I'm sure it's still far from the light of heaven as well
We are somewhere stuck in the middle
We dwell where the two connect

Disregard
The image on that Tarot card
Let it go
'Cause we don't know
What tomorrow
Holds for you and me

This tangled maze keeps on twisting, twisting
But through the chaos, we will keep persisting
The sound of a bell 'calls for a new adventure
And the start of a brand new beginnin'
I don't know which way I should be goin'
It's really scary to run not knowin'
But with every step we grow stronger, I know that soon
We will find the way because the day has come

You only believe what you can see
With your own eyes, but blink

And as you're cowering in the dark, you'll start to see
Everything you fear, it will start to manifest
So cry on, cry on

The ones who live are the real survivors
They'll drag you down with their cloaks and daggers
They strive to survive in this world where all justice
And all fairness is but an illusion
The secret hunter is creeping closer
You hear it whisper the fate of the future
You sharpen your claws as you run to the exit sign
There's no time to wait because the day has come
