

Hell Or High Water

Amanda Cook

You have my heart
For good, for good
I've seen enough
To know You're good

Hell or high water
I'll build an altar
I will remember
I will remember
You are The Healer
You're The Redeemer
Your love is unfailing
Faithful forever

So come what may
I'll trust, I'll trust
You rule, you reign
With love, always with love

Hell or high water
I'll build an altar
I will remember
I will remember
You are The Healer
You're The Redeemer
'Cause Your love is unfailing
Faithful forever

In every high and stormy gale
This anchor holds, it always will
My strength, my hope, my confidence
Is in the name of, the name of Jesus
In every high and stormy gale
This anchor holds, it always will
My strength, my hope, my confidence
Is in the name of, the name of Jesus
Oh, it's in the name of, the name of Jesus

So hell or high water
I'll build an altar
Oh, I will remember
I will remember
You are The Healer
You're The Redeemer
Your love is unfailing
Faithful forever

You have my heart
For good, for good
I've seen enough
To know You're good
