

See You Again

Amanda Cook

This life is totaled, you move to a better place
A place beyond the sunrise
And we're still standing on the earth you left behind
With years left to finish the race that you had run
There's moments within this I come undone
'Cause I miss you so
Oh, I miss you so

But this gone is not goodbye
This is not a final goodbye
We're not far behind
We're following you

With unanswered questions, left to wonder
Why these things go the way they do
Well, I keep believing the time is short
To make good of the time you're given to
'Cause this road seems wrong
But I know it won't be long

I'll see you again
This is not the end, my friend
I'm gonna close my eyes and then I'll count to ten
Oh, I'll see you again
This is not a final goodbye
I'm gonna close my eyes and then I'll count to ten
Oh, I'll see you again

Oh, this gone is not goodbye
This is not a final goodbye
We're not far behind
We're following you
I'll see you again
This is not a final goodbye
I'm gonna close my eyes and then I'll count to ten
Oh, I'll see you again
