

Small

Amanda Cook

I just need to get away from me
I just need to find some peace of mind
Caught in this game of unmet expectations
I wanna leave it all behind

I wanna be small
I wanna be just like a child
I wanna be quiet in Your arms
I wanna be small
I wanna be just like a child
I wanna be quiet in Your arms

So in that moment, when I lose myself
Let the world fade away from me
Give me a moment just to seek the silence
I just wanna be set free

I wanna be small
I wanna be just like a child
I wanna be quiet in Your arms
I wanna be small
I wanna be just like a child
I wanna be quiet in Your arms

I wanna be small
I wanna be just like a child
I wanna be quiet in Your arms
I wanna be small
I wanna be just like a child
I wanna be quiet in Your arms

I wanna be small
I wanna be just like a child
I wanna be quiet in Your arms
I wanna be small
I wanna be just like a child
I wanna be quiet in Your arms
I wanna be quiet in Your arms
