

Time

Amanda Cook

Don't you think it's time to forgive yourself
Don't you think it's time to forgive yourself
Don't you think it's time to forgive yourself

Heaven says it's time
Heaven says it's time

Hasn't the self-hatred stayed long enough
Hasn't the self-hatred stayed long enough
Maybe that's all you thought you were worthy of
But, hasn't the self-hatred stayed long enough

Heaven says it's time
Heaven says it's time
To free your heart and free your mind
Heaven says it's time

This could be the moment it all could change
This could be the moment it all could change
Who told you that it always has to be this way
This could be the moment it all could change

Heaven says it's time
Heaven says it's time
To free your heart and free your mind
Heaven says it's time

Wouldn't it feel like freedom to let it go
Wouldn't it feel like freedom to let it go
The weight of all the world was never yours to hold
Wouldn't it feel like freedom to let it go
