

Autopilot

Amanda Jenssen

Autopilot, take my memories
'Cause I won't need them anymore
Autopilot, take my hand and lead me home
Because my eyes are getting sore

All the clouds are closing in
I have lost my safety pin
I guess my shell was way too thin
For a war that I can't win

And I think they've already won
'Cause my love is gone
My love is gone
I think they've already won
'Cause my love is gone
My love is gone

It doesn't matter what I tell you
'Cause you stopped listening years ago
It doesn't matter how much I try to make you see
But I just thought that you should know

That it's too late to repair
Follow signs that lead nowhere
I will burn my luggage there
'Cause I'm too tired to be scared

And I think they've already won
'Cause my love is gone
My love is gone
I think they've already won
'Cause my love is gone
My love is gone

My love is gone
My love is gone
My love is gone
My love is gone
