

Come On (you Have Arrived)

Amanda Jenssen

Shoo be do
Be do be do be do
Shoo be do
Be do be do be do
Shoo be do
Be do be do be do
Oh

Heart is pounding, curtains drawn
All seats sold out and lights are on
Cameras flashing to the beat, oh yeah
Hair is teased and make up's done
The crowd is getting ready to sing along
I can feel all eyes on me, oh yeah

So come on, come on
Come on, you're gonna get it
You're on, you're on
You're on this very minute
Come on, come on
You know that you've got nothing to hide
So come on, come on
And drop the hesitation
Just close your eyes
And put the roxy motion
The game is on
It's time to let the dice collide
Cause tonight, tonight is your night
Tonight you have arrived

This is what you've all waited for
So put your cellphones on record
Clap your hands and scream for more, oh yeah

So come on, come on
Just go up there and get it
You're on, you're on
You're on this very minute
Look up, look up
There's a .. star in the sky
Come on, come on
Don't waste another second
Go out, go out
And grab all their attention
The stage is yours to keep
The moment is right
Cause tonight, tonight is your night
Tonight you have arrived

So come on, come on
Come on, come on
Cause tonight, tonight is your night

Tonight you have arrived
