

Thunderful Jolene

Amanda Jenssen

The park is asleep on a Monday morning
A cloud of concrete damps the lynx's roaring
A heart doesn't rust, it just changes size
They hate you because you don't compromise
The park is asleep with the dreams inside their eyes

Punches
Up is steep
Monsters
Never sleep

You wanna believe
But your heart aches
Heart aches
Jolene
(2x)

Can't rest
No justice
Bengan, why?
Will easy ever be?
The cats from happyland and I
Will follow you and see
Thunderful Jolene
Thunderful Jolene

The frog that you kissed was a shot of glory
The scars on your wrist tells a different story
Not easy to find, a lie so sincere
You've made up your mind, you were never here
The frog that you kissed does not like a pioneer

Strip down
What you are Klippan's
Polar star

You wanna believe
But your heart aches
Heart aches
Jolene
(2x)

Can't rest
No justice
Bengan, why?
Will easy ever be?
The cats from happyland and I
Will follow you and see
Thunderful Jolene
