Amanda Lear

Part 1.

You thought, You knew me, but You didn't

I thought, I knew myself, But I didn't.

It is not me, it is another me

Alter Ego,

Alter Ego, another me

Try to get to know me

Alter Ego

Couse this is to begin of an other side of me

Alter Ego

Part 2.

Alter ego

So this is it!

Now, from the end.

And now you think, you'd known me better?

Do I know myself better?

What have I learned, is this another side of me?

No, there is always another side.

There is always another me.

There is always something to discover.

There is always alter ego, another ego, alter ego

Another time, another place, alter ego

This is the End.

Is it?

There is never an End.
