

Hollywood Flashback

Amanda Lear

We met in a flashback starrin' only you
a Hollywood flashback
made me feel so blue
a Hollywood flashback
just the two of us and a movie soundtrack, make up you looked so good in close up in Hollywood, in Hollywood

You and me, like in a movie we used to love in slow motion in the golden sunset of a Hollywood, film set you and me, like in a movie blendin' actin' and clever lightin' Oscar winnin' performance almost a true romance

Celluloid darling in an open car cameras are rolling Sunset Boulevard
alive on the screen love is like a flashback, a dream for a lonely movie queen throwin' you, in my arms was a touch, of clever casting

we both demanded top billing me in my false eyelashes you in your fake, moustache
we're kissing in Technicolor sleepin' in day for night make believe tears, and phony fights

We met in a Hollywood flashback...
