

Paris By Night

Amanda Lear

It was night and suddenly I felt like dancing
I took a cab to show me to the disco scene
He said: Ok
You wanna see those crazy people
Hastling at the door to get into Studio 54

Who is in?
Who is out?
Tell me
Tell me
Tell me
Who is in?
Who is out?
Famous and trendy

In
People always have to smile in Vogue
They only travel by Concorde
Doing things you can't afford

They are the fashion pack
People you see in the magazines
They are the fashion pack
They're always smiling in their limousines
They only come on their trendy track
They are the fashion pack

Well
I was in and everybody was travolting
The fashion queens
The models and the movie stars

Andy snapping
Margaux dancing with Scavullo

Liza dancing on the floor
And Bianca walking through the door

Who is in?
Who is out?
Tell me
Tell me
Tell me
Who is in?
Who is out?
Woman's wear Dally

Rock stars sniffing
While Marisa's posing
Paloma's counting her paintings
The models of Zoli flirting

They are the fashion pack
People you see in the magazines
They are the fashion pack
They're always smiling in their limousines
They only come on their trendy track

They are the fashion pack

Hey

What's your name

Didn't I see you in Interview

Last month or was it the Ritz

Gee

You're so famous

May I have your autograph
