

Honest

Amanda Marshall

I don't miss your cooking
I've lost twenty pounds since May
Bought a whole new wardrobe, threw my old clothes away
I feel great
Honest

I don't miss your clutter
I've got lots of space
The house is empty, walls are bare
But us girls just love to decorate
It's a nice clean slate
Honest

I don't obsess over the things that you said
Or feel strange sleeping on your side of the bed
Never read your horoscope before mine
I'd tell you that I miss you but I cannot tell a lie
Why would I?
Basically, I'm on cloud nine
Honest

I'm not lonely or depressed
I have no doubt that it worked out for the best
I don't think about you all the time
I've never been so happy, cross my heart
Hope to die
Look in my eyes
These are tears of joy I'm crying
Honest
Just look at me, darling
Having the time of my life
Honest

Don't worry bout me, I'm just fine
