

Our Problem

Amanda Shires

Remember Katie White?
She jumped the fence that night
She ran away in tears
Your sister drank her beer
We were just eighteen
The older girls could be so mean
I was talking just to talk
You were still in shock
And all I could think to say
Is, "Everything's gonna be okay (it's gonna be okay)
It's gonna be alright
I'm on your side
I'm on your side"
Are ya feeling well?
Are you gonna tell?
How long have you known?
Did you tell him? Does he know?
You knew there was something wrong
Just a few weeks along
You tell him and he broke it off
And the money won't cover the cost
And all I could think to say

Is, "Everything's gonna be okay
It's gonna be alright
I'm on your side
I'm on your side"
No one has to know
The scars won't even show
At least that's what I've heard
No bigger than a baby bird (No bigger than a baby bird)
No bigger than a baby bird (No bigger than a baby bird)
Do you think God still sees me?
Come on out of this twilight sleep
I'm not sure who I am
Staring into my empty hands
And all I could think to say (All I could think to say)
Is, "Everything's gonna be okay (Is gonna be okay)
It's gonna be alright (Oh, it's gonna be alright)
I'm on your side
I'm on your side"
