Clean

Amanda Somerville

Finish me Push me off the ledge So hard to read So hard to make a call on what you do or say It's not my place to do so, anyway A magnet pulls It singes the air I'm torn in two I'm watching your fingers painting shadows with the beat Longing for your hands to reach out for me And don't you know I need to come clean Indiscreet I've got something to say Giving away my dirty deed Is it indiscreet I've got nothing to lose To tell you you're the liquid of my dreams I need to come clean Taunting me I'd say you were there We're stumbling We're walking a tightrope made of high voltage wire We're melting as we tend to our fires You're whispering I don't want to hear You're mumbling You see how I fight to claw my way further down The need to bury my secret is strong And yet I know I need to come clean Indiscreet I've got something to say Giving away my dirty deed Is it indiscreet I've got nothing to lose To tell you you're the liquid of my dreams I need to come clean Taunting me I'd say you were there We're stumbling We're walking a tightrope made of high voltage wire We're melting as we tend to our fires Heaven help me Will I ever be clean of this Mortally afflicted Heaven help... But leave a light on so you can watch me sin Indiscreet I've got something to say Giving away my dirty deed

Is it indiscreet
I've got nothing to lose
To tell you you're the liquid of my dreams
I need to come clean
Taunting me
I'd say you were there
We're stumbling
We're walking a tightrope made of high voltage wire
We're melting as we tend to our fires
Glistening

We dance in the rain So easy now So hard to pull the brake once you're on the ride You'll get to know me from the inside I need to come clean
