

Start It All Over

Amanda

Why do you think
I have all these tears in my eyes I'm tryin' hard, not to remember I told the truth
but maybe I should have lied
but look who's sorry now

I kissed somebody but that's not what I meant it was just a kiss
not a total surrender and I swear that's as far as it went
but look who's sorry now

So whatever I did
whatever I said
cant we start it all over
and whatever it takes whatever you say, I'll do so let's start it all over agian

What was I thinking?
was I losing my mind?
you're everything
that this girl ever wanted I know I'll never find someone like you

so let's start it all over agian

If you could only forgive and forget
you're gonna have to find a way I seem to remember that once did it for you now I'm beggin' you to do the same

Start it
start it all over agian ahh
can we start it?
can we start it all over agian?

can we start it once agian
can we start it all over agian, baby
