

Limitless

Amaranthe

A hole in my heart, a changing desire
My softest command: set this love afire
Give in, breathe out, I'm lost this time
And I cannot deny it; I'm in a different state of mind

Can we be just who we are?
Doesn't matter if the road is far
'Cause there are no regrets and there is no stress
Together we are limit, limitless

We can be just who we are
Doesn't matter if the road, the road is far
Nobody can break their way to success
We're forever limit, limitless

Two hearts can collide, encourage the power
When two worlds embrace each other's desire
I see it clear; this state I'm in
And words can't define it; it's different state of mind

Can we be just who we are?
Doesn't matter if the road is far
'Cause there are no regrets and there is no stress
Together we are limit, limitless

We can be just who we are
Doesn't matter if the road, the road is far
Nobody can break their way to success
We're forever limit, limitless

'Cause I keep believing
That I can keep breathing if just for one night, oh
And I, I cannot get enough of you
'Cause you are the reason I fought it, oh

Can we be just who we are?
Doesn't matter if the road is far
'Cause there are no regrets and there is no stress
Together we are limit, limitless

We can be just who we are (We are)
Doesn't matter if the road, the road is far
Nobody can break their way to success
We're forever limit, limitless
