

Pretty Idea

Amber Mark

Your touch when I'm coming home
It's a pretty idea
A pretty idea
Who's the one that did you wrong?
Maybe I did
Maybe I did

You say we're changing, but I think you're fading on me
I need to know if you're the one that's chosen, baby
You and your friends now, running like you won't run out
But it all runs out

New York City silhouettes hit different in the wintertime
California, pray for me, I'm living on sinning time
Watches on their wrist so bright, they make me blind
I can't trust nobody, they just tell me lies

Your touch when I'm coming home
Pretty idea
It's a pretty idea
Who's the one that did you wrong?
Maybe I did
Maybe I did

Your touch when I'm coming home
Pretty idea
Pretty idea
It's a pretty idea
Pretty idea
Who's the one that did you wrong?
Maybe I did
Maybe I did
Maybe I did
Maybe I did

Who's the one?
Pretty idea
