

Regret

Amber Mark

At times I wish that I could take back
The times I made you feel real bad
Now you
Why you, darling?

I should've said I love the memories
I could've given all of the world to see
But you
Now you, darling

'Cause there are so many stories
You were going to tell me
And now all of these moments
I will never get to see
How, you were my everything
Now, won't get a chance to say it
No
