

Sink or Swim

Amber Pacific

You'll never know when the day ends
If we'll see the light
You can't hold back on the moments
Make them last before we close our eyes
And one day when we look back
On how we built this life
You can't hold on to forever
Sure as hell I hope we did right

When the days turn to nights
All we have is in the sky
Looking down I'll be the light in your eyes

Let's wait forever
Here in this home
We spent a lifetime
We're growing old
And in the moment
No one will know
Changes aren't forever
I'm not here to let this go

Can we take some time?
Not sure I'll be alright
Don't let it in
It's sink or swim
Or is it drowning to survive?
Just take the hits and we'll be fine

We made a bet that we can't lose
I won't forget these nights
It's playing out like a movie
Driving up as the sun sets on our life
So wake me up from this nightmare
Still looking for a sign
That tells me things get better
Catching hope we're running out of time

When the days turn to nights
All we have is in the sky
Looking down I'll be the light in your eyes

Let's wait forever
Here in this home
We spent a lifetime
We're growing old
And in the moment
No one will know
Changes aren't forever

Can we take some time?
Or is it drowning to survive?
Thank you for the chance to share this life

Don't let it in
And I'll admit, I'm terrified

Let's wait forever
Here in this home
We spent a lifetime
We're growing old

Can we take some time?
It's sink or swim
Or is it drowning to survive?
Thank you for the chance to share this life
It's sink or swim
