

Undone

Amber Pacific

At first sight it felt like I would lose my Way without you here,
I'm, scared to let you go
I'm taking in the moments
Every little instance,
leaves me feeling breathless
Tired and alone I can't let this go.

(Wooah)

I'm at my best when

(Wooah)

I still believe it

(Wooah)

It's not the ending

A new beginning starts tonight

All my life
I fought this feeling
I can't fight
this voice of reason
And it's hard to be
A memory
The life that I loved has become undone

When it feels like hope has all be lost just focus on the ones who tell you you'll be fine,
I'll never leave your side
I'm here with you to try it,
Try to just believe that
You can make it right
You can sleep tonight

(Wooah)

I'm at my best when

(Wooah)

I still believe it

(Wooah)

It's not the ending

A new beginning starts tonight

All my life
I fought this feeling
I can't fight
this voice of reason
And it's hard to be
A memory
The life that I loved has become undone

All my life
I fought this feeling
I can't fight
And it's hard to be
A memory

All my life

I fought this feeling
I can't fight
this voice of reason
And it's hard to be
A memory

(Wooooah) Has become undone
(Wooooah) Has become undone
(Wooooah) Has become undone
The life that I loved
