

Young And Reckless

Amber Pacific

For one night lets make the most of it, forget where we started
Those days when we were made for this, aren't too far behind us
Can't sleep, on the weekends, so get out, with our best friends
Find all the reasons to pretend, like we're young and we're reckless

Oh oh, its about that feeling
Oh oh, I just can't ignore
Oh oh, give me one good reason
I could never dream of what we've waited for

Remember all the times we use to say, lets live in the moment
So beyond the hopes of Fading Days, aren't too far behind us
Can't sleep, on the weekend, so get loud, with your best friends
Find all the promise to be honest, and get down on what's coming

Oh oh, its about that feeling
Oh oh, I just can't ignore
Oh oh, give me one good reason
I could never dream of what we've waited for
Oh oh, it's about that feeling
Oh oh, leaves us wanting more
Oh oh, so come on and lets sing it
Sing it out loud like its your final show

I'll admit, but I'm not the only one, who forgives to forget so me
Stupid thing I never started when, just to justify the cause
But I'm learning how to mend, all the things I did back when
We were criticized for what we were, just trying to fit in
And how it made no sense

Oh oh, its about that feeling
Oh oh, I just can't ignore
Oh oh, give me one good reason
I could never dream of what we've waited for
Oh oh, it's about that feeling
Oh oh, leaves us wanting more
Oh oh, so come on and lets sing it
Sing it out loud like its your final show
